GOV. BARNES TURNS DOWN GOV. STANLEY

Fails to Honor a Requisttion From Kansas.

FGR MR, I. N. WILLIAMS An Excellent Combination.

Another Case of Oppression by Kansas City Firms.

Guthrie, O. T., April 22 .- Governor C. M. Harnes refused to honor a requisition today from Governor Stanley of Kansas for L. N. Williams of Washita county, who is a well known cattleman of Oklahoma. This case is similar to the Columny and Smith case which created so much comment in this country a year ago and which caused the condemnation of the methods of bustness of some of the cattle. commission firms in Kansus City.

The regulation which was sound by Governor Stanley states that Williams Is s fugitive from justice and is wanted in Wyandotte county for obtaining money ander false proteness. Williams has never been a resident of Karsess since this country was opened up for settlement and now owns a large ranch in Washita coun-ty. For some time he was the solicitor the southwestern part of Chlahoma for the Elmore-Cooper Commission company of Monone City, making Loans on cuttle Williams had 400 steers on his ranch an while solicitor secured a loan of $5,000 tram the Elmore-Cooper company. The from the Elmore-Cooper company, cattle were given as security and kept on company came into Oklahema and made three cases in the jail, but none of the two or three attempts to secure the caltic, claiming that the firm was not setts-fied that everything was right. One time they did get away with about 100 head of the cattle, and Williams, together with a brother in the business brought a civil action against the Elmore-Cooper company, claiming that they had secure nough of the cattle to pay the claim against them and also had cattle spench to make about $6,000 more than their mortgage called for.
